

LINCOLN PARK DRESS CODE 2010-2011

Any article of clothing (including head gear, shoes, socks, pants, etc.) will be free of any symbol, logo, words, numbers, or pictures that contain or allude to the following: Sex, Alcohol, Drugs, or Violence. This includes slogans, innuendoes, or suggestions deemed inappropriate by school administration.

ALL apparel must be clean and in good repair—no rips, tears, or holes. ALL apparel must FIT properly—no sagging, baggy or skin-tight apparel. Any undergarments shall not be visible. No midriffs.

All shirts and blouses must have sleeves. Shirts hanging below the rear end must be tucked in. All clothing shall be worn as it was intended. NO headgear of any kind is permitted including hats, caps, sweatbands, hair picks, combs, scarves, curlers, or “do-rags.”

Jewelry and accessories are permissible as long as it is not excessive, flashy, or bulky and does not distract from the educational process. Excluded items include dog collars, any electronic jewelry or belts, studded belts, heavy chains, hair picks, excessively plated jewelry, wallet chains, pierced jewelry that connects one body part to another, or any other jewelry or accessories that pose a safety concern.

Footwear must have an enclosed heel and toe. No slippers of any kind. Heels can be no more than 2” high. “Heelies” are not permitted. Socks must match one another and shoelaces must match one another. Shoelaces must be tied and Velcro fastened.

OUTERWEAR

All coats, jackets, nylon jackets, denim jackets, leather jackets, headgear such as hats, earmuffs, caps, scarves, gloves, mittens, etc., must be stored in lockers or appropriate areas.
